Description of Program:

This training is designed for attorneys with three years or less experience in juvenile court trial practice. This one-day seminar, with a team of experienced trainers in juvenile practice, will help newer attorneys work through:

- 1) Pre-trial practice (including client interviewing and investigation, and motion practice);
- 2) The adjudicatory process (i.e. persuading a judge rather than jury, competently preserving a record for appeal, and basics of putting on evidence); and
- 3) Disposition practice (including motions, presentation of witnesses, cross of state's witness,
